A simple line drawing of two stylized human figures shaking hands. The figure on the left is wearing a long-sleeved shirt and pants, while the figure on the right is wearing a short-sleeved shirt and pants. Both have speech bubbles above their heads containing three horizontal lines. The word 'ACCEPTANCE' is written in large, purple, capital letters at the top of the page. To the right of the figures, the words 'FIVE' and 'SEVEN' are written in purple, stacked vertically.
